Legal Means for Transferring Data from Europe* to U.S.

*Switzerland modelled its Privacy Shield Framework after the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework – same privacy principles apply.

What are the Privacy Shield Frameworks?

EU legislators put restrictions on transfers of personal data outside of the EU, specifying that such data could only be exported if “adequate protection” is provided.

The European Commission (EC) is responsible for assessing whether a country outside the EU has a legal framework that provides sufficient protection for it to issue an “adequacy finding” to that country.

The U.S. not found adequate by the EC – no national comprehensive data privacy law – patchwork of self regulation; state and federal laws. This means that U.S. companies can only receive personal data from the EU if they:

- Join EU-U.S. Privacy Shield* and/or Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield, or
- Provide appropriate safeguards (e.g. contractual clauses, binding corporate rules).

*July 16, 2020 CJEU decision struck down EU-U.S. Privacy Shield.
Key Components to Join Shield Frameworks

- Designate an accountable executive and train appropriate staff
- Operationalize and verify compliance with core Privacy Principles: notice, choice, security; onward transfer; data integrity and purpose limitation; access; and recourse, enforcement and liability
- Update your Privacy Shield Notice – ANA staff can review/not certify.
- Update your third-party contracts to comply with onward transfer principle
- Select a third party (ANA) to serve as your Dispute Resolution Provider
- Self-certify with U.S. Department of Commerce, annually
- Pay initial fee to Arbitration Fund.

Participating Companies and Complaint Overview
The ANA Privacy Shield Program Executive Summary - 2020

This reporting period covers activity: August 1st, 2019 – July 31, 2020

• The ANA Privacy Shield Program serves 42 participating member companies. Enrollment is ongoing.
• 8 ANA participants did not renew with ANA during this period.
• 2 new participants joined the ANA Privacy Shield Program.
• During this reporting period, ANA did not receive any eligible complaints under the ANA Privacy Shield Program.
The ANA Privacy Shield Participant Survey

ANA polled its Privacy Shield participating companies in August 2020 to ascertain additional information regarding their Shield status during this reporting period: 53% self-identified as a data processor of information, and 56% are participants in both the EU and Swiss frameworks.
Processing Complaints Under ANA Privacy Shield Program

Contact company or organization directly with European or Swiss data privacy concern.

Companies must sign contract to agree to abide by the decisions of the ANA Privacy Shield Program.

Process handled staff-to-staff level. Complaint forms and dedicated email address created: privacyshield@ana.net

http://www.ana.net/content/show/id/self-regulation-privacy-shield

Escalation: referred to ANA Privacy Shield Committee. The Committee hears both sides of a dispute and provides final determination.

Committee takes steps to finalize resolution including:

Correction/deletion of inaccurate information, correction of actions found not to be in compliance, publicity, and/or referral to FTC/DOC.

In previous reporting periods, staff has addressed complaints within 30 days – our standard resolution occurring within 5-7 business days. To access previous reports, contact ANA staff.
Additional Avenues for Handling Complaints

• CONTACT YOUR DATA PROTECTION AUTHORITY (EU/EEA DPA)
  ○ You can always submit a complaint directly to your local EU/EEA DPA or the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner. Your EU/EEA DPA or the Swiss Commissioner may refer your complaint directly to the U.S. Department of Commerce on your behalf.
  ○ The U.S. Department of Commerce’s Privacy Shield Team will work with the organization and complainant to seek to resolve the concern.

• INVOCIE BINDING ARBITRATION
  ○ If your complaint is not resolved after following the steps above, you may have the ability to invoke binding arbitration.

• CONTACT THE APPROPRIATE U.S. ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY
  ○ In most instances, the relevant U.S. enforcement authority is the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). To submit a complaint to the FTC, click here. The FTC uses complaints in its database, accessible by other law enforcement agencies, to identify trends, determine priorities, and identify potential investigative targets. Please note that the FTC does not resolve or mediate individual complaints, so you are encouraged to use the other complaint resolution mechanisms noted above as well.

Renewal Process & Fees
ANA Privacy Shield Program
Renewal Process

• Staff provided regular updates to participants during the reporting period with pertinent organizational and program information, including the recent CJEU decision to invalidate EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and other enforcement announcements and activities from FTC and U.S. Department of Commerce.

• Staff provided ANA Privacy Shield participants with updated contact information and logo for them to post in their Privacy Shield notices.

• Staff asked companies to provide ANA with any updated Privacy Shield notices for staff review and filing.

• Staff reviewed privacy shield notices and provided recommended edits as needed.

• Staff reached out to U.S. Department of Commerce as needed and appropriate upon request of participants – for status updates on self-certification renewals and new applications.

• ANA members either do not pay for this service or it’s $300, annually, depending on member dues level. There’s still a separate application and staff review process.
